

Boundary changes under consideration

1 Parish Merger – Tregony and Cuby

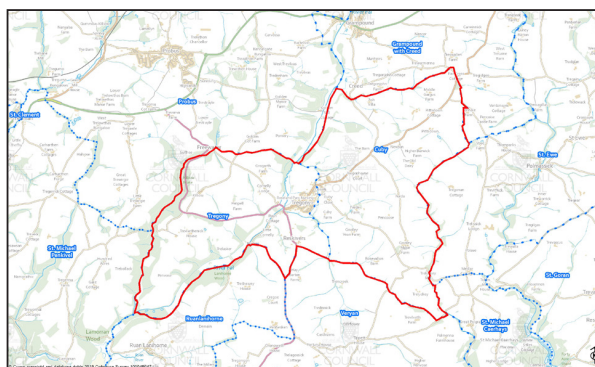

Recommendation: To merge the parishes of Tregony and Cuby to form a new parish to be called ‘Tregony with Cuby’ with an unwarded parish council of 10 councillors

Cornwall Council received one submission from a resident and submissions from Tregony Parish Council and Cuby Parish Meeting that both parishes wished to be amalgamated to facilitate more efficient governance and maintain community identity.

Cornwall Council consider that this change would better reflect the identity and interests of the area and secure more effective and convenient community governance.

It is further recommended that the new council is:

- to be named ‘Tregony with Cuby’
- not to be warded
- to have 10 parish councillors

2 Boundary between Probus and Grampound with Creed - Grampound

Recommendation: To change the boundary between the parishes of Probus and Grampound with Creed in line with Map 2.0

Cornwall Council received a submission from Grampound with Creed Parish Council that it wished to change its boundary with Probus as per Map 2.0, so as to bring all of Grampound village within the Parish.

Cornwall Council consider that this change would better reflect the identity and interests of the area and secure more effective and convenient community governance.
